Announcements

Wedding Invitations.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Hutton C. Moore, of Pine Bluff, Ark., for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Colcock, to Mr. Felix Gerit Smart, on Wednesday, Oct. 27, at Trinity Episcopal church, Pine Bluff.

WILL CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY AND WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. W. H. Barker has planned a delightful affair for Wednesday afternoon when she will entertain with a children's party in celebration of the birthday anniversary of her pretty little daughter, Mary Ellen. The children, about 20 of whom will have the pleasure of being present, will enjoy games, the affair being in the nature of a Halloween party.

The occasion is also the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Jere Watkins Clapp and as little Miss Barker is named for Mrs. Clapp, the two events will be celebrated. Mrs. Clapp will be present to assist Mrs. Barker in receiving the guests and in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Clapp will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Barker at dinner.

Mrs. Barker has invited her elder daughter, Miss Elise Sanford Barker, and Misses Mildred DeLoach, Jean Ewing and Pauline Barlow to assist in entertaining the children in the afternoon.

Home Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Janey Levi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Levi, to Mr. Maurice Strauss will take place on Wednesday evening in the home of the bride's parents on Carr avenue.

Will Honor Rector.

The Rev. C. F. Blaisdell, rector of Calvary church, and Mrs. Blaisdell will be honored by the members of the church on Thursday evening with a reception in the parish house. The members of the vestry and their wives and the officers of the various organizations of the church will receive the guests.

An invitation has been extended to the ministers of all the local churches to be present.

Engagements

Parker-Mausser.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fremont Parker, of Pine Bluff, Ark., announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Vivian, to Jonathan Garrett Mausser, of Humphrey, Ark.

CLUBDOM

HEALTH DEPARTMENT OF NINETEENTH CENTURY CLUB

The health department of the Nineteenth Century club will be made a most important feature this year under the capable chairmanship of Mrs. Iry Bennett. The health of the club members themselves will be built up by the class in physical culture, which will be held every Friday morning at 10 o'clock, beginning on Nov. 5. This class will be under the personal direction of Mr. William H. Newman, who is one of the finest physical directors in the country.

A series of health talks, which will be entertaining as well as instructive, will be given by some of the most prominent physicians in the city, and after Christmas a series of lectures on applied psychology will be given by Prof. Austin Finley, of the West Tennessee Normal school. In the work of the department Mrs. Bennett will have the assistance of Mrs. S. J. Shortie as vice-chairman, and a board of directors composed of Dr. Elizabeth C. Kane, Misses Frank N. Fisher, M. T. Roush, Milton Hunt, W. H. Newman, S. M. Nicky, Harry H. Dammann, J. Rowlett Paine, J. C. Felsenthal, Robert York, W. H. Goodrich, Gladys Bond, George C. Wellons, Hill Bond and Misses Irma Lesser and Little Mae Young.

Mrs. Bennett calls a meeting of the directors of her department for Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the club.

LITERARY CLUBS INTERESTED IN VISIT OF JOHN C. POWYS

Members of literary clubs and all lovers of literature are anticipating with keen pleasure the coming of Goodwyn Institute this week of the brilliant English essayist, novelist and literary critic, John Cowper Powys of London, who is giving a series of literary lectures in the largest cities of America this winter. Mr. Powys has been engaged by Goodwyn Institute for three lectures to be given as follows:

Thursday night, Oct. 21: "Land Marks of Modern Literature."

Friday night, Oct. 22: "Walt Whitman, the Prophet."

Saturday night, Oct. 23: "Henry James, the Psychologist."

For several years he has been regarded both in England and America as England's foremost interpreter of literature and one of the most brilliant lecturers of this generation. As a lecturer he is unique and possesses to a marvelous degree that peculiar platform gift called personal magnetism. He is a wonderful speaker and puts vitality and contagious enthusiasm in what, in other hands, might ordinarily be considered tedious literary subjects. His lectures on "Walt Whitman, the Prophet" and "Henry James, the Psychologist" are said to be masterpieces of this famous and brilliant English essayist. Mr. Powys' literary criticisms, "Vision and Revisions," "Suspended Judgments" and other books by him are in Goodwyn Institute library.

Idlewild Church Auxiliary.

The Ladies' auxiliary of the Idlewild Presbyterian church will hold a program meeting on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the home of Mrs. W. B. Gray, 1723 Union avenue. All the ladies of the church have been invited to be present.

Increase Shown In Memphis Debts

Business is on the mend in Memphis, according to indications contained in the weekly debts charged against accounts by Memphis banks. The item of debts has been on a downward grade recently, but for the past week an increase of some $3,000,000 shows a turn toward activity again. Furthermore, the relative prosperity of Memphis is indicated by the fact that Memphis leads a list of a dozen Southern cities, being $1,750,000, in round numbers, ahead of its nearest rival, Atlanta.

Business men were commenting Tuesday on the turn in debts, as well as the fact that the figures show that Memphis is holding its place at the head of the list in relative prosperity. This latter fact was attributed by most observers to the fact that the city has passed the stage where she depended largely, if not solely, upon one industry, that of cotton, for its business. Other lines have moved into important positions, and while the moment cotton is lacking, these lines have stepped into the breach with relatively good business.

The list of cities, with the debts for the past week follows: Memphis, $31,800,000; Atlanta, $20,050,000; Richmond, $23,103,000; Columbus, $27,309,000; Rochester, $27,278,000; Toledo, $28,661,000; Louisville, $28,439,000; Nashville, $23,906,000; Hartford, $22,050,000; Akron, $19,008,000; Birmingham, $17,554,000; Worcester, $17,205,000.

DUTTLINGER SELLS HOME.

W. C. Duttlinger, a commissioner for the new market house and auditorium, has traded his home at 1670 Union avenue, for a 560-acre farm in Mississippi, according to Lux McFadden, local real estate man, who handled the deal. The house was valued at $18,000. Mr. Duttlinger lived there with his sister until she moved to California. He will continue to live in Memphis. The farm trade in was owned by A. P. Heron. Duttlinger will develop the property, or sell it.

RIVER RIPPLES

The steamer Princess, substituting for one trip of the Harry Lee to Friar Point, returned to this port Monday with 202 bales of cotton.

The Lee line steamers have been bringing considerable cotton to Memphis within the last few weeks. The Eclipse brought 575 bales from Ashport recently.

The regular trip to Helena and Friar Point was made Tuesday by the steamer Harry Lee.

The steamer Disie is scheduled to clear Tuesday afternoon for Caruthersville and way landings. On her return to this port she brought several bales of cotton and other freight.

The regular packet boat Tuesday to Scupper Landing and way points was the steamer Idlewild. Much cotton and cottonseed is also being handled by her.

The Eclipse cleared Tuesday for Ashport and way landings in the upper delta.

Starting Tuesday evening at 5 o'clock the steamer Princess, of the Lee Line, will be entered in the Memphis-Caruthersville trade, under the new schedule of her company. She will return to this port in time to make her second weekly departure Friday evening at 5 o'clock.

The Kate Adams cleared Monday afternoon for Osceola, Friar Point and Rosedale with a good cargo of freight.

The steamer Osceola cleared Tuesday for Osceola, and way landings as the United States mail boat.

IN MEMORIAM.

TO MARY VIRGINIA FORBES. It is hard for us to associate the thought of death with little Virginia. The glow, the grace, and the beauty of life's earliest morning were here but yesterday. A beautiful little body, a brilliant young mind, and a spirit pure and sinless as the souls of God's angels made Virginia beloved by all who knew her.

In the schoolroom where the vistas of knowledge were just opening to the little one, on the playground where she romped with childish abandon, and in the home where she was the light and the joy, an aching void is left. The world, however, is a brighter and better place since Virginia has lived in it, and her precious memory will remain ever fragrant.

To the bereaved father, mother and little sister—to all those who loved her—our hearts go out in deepest sympathy. As our only consolation we offer the thought of a great poet: "As those who enter life come not with knowledge or intent, So those who enter death must go as little children sent. Nothing is known, but I believe that God is overhead, And as life is to the living, so death is to the dead."
